

Health Emphasis: Sun Safety

Most parents understand that using sun block is important and they try their best to avoid letting their kids get sunburned.

Unfortunately, no matter how careful they are, they are sometimes left with a sunburned child or a child with a deep, dark tan.

Avoiding common mistakes that parents make when using sun block can help you avoid painful sunburns. These mistakes include:

1. Not using sun block. This is especially common early in the spring or summer, when you don't think it is sunny enough to get a burn. Parents also sometimes forget to use sunscreen when it is late in the day, when they underestimate how long their kids will be outside, or when it is cloudy outside.
2. Not using enough sun block. The average person uses less than half the recommended amount of sun block when they do apply it on their kids. So apply a thick layer to each section of your child's body, to the point that it is actually hard to work it all in.
3. Missing areas of their child's body when they apply sun block. Many kids, especially younger ones, don't like to have sun block put on them. This can make applying sun block quite the battle, making it easy to miss a shoulder, thigh, or nose.
4. Not reapplying sun block every few hours, especially when your kids are in the water or sweating a lot. Even sun block that is waterproof should be reapplied often.
5. Waiting too long to put sun block on. Remember, to be effective, sun block should be applied about 30 minutes before your kids go outside. If you wait until your kids are already outside, they will be unprotected for about 30 minutes until the sun block is most effective, which is more than enough time to get a tan or sun burn.
6. Letting their kids play outside when the sun is strongest, between 10:00 am and 4:00 pm.
7. Not providing kids with shade. To avoid the sun and help keep kids from getting overheated, some shade can be helpful.

HAVE A SAFE, FUN FILLED SUMMER!

From Engagement to Engaged

We're Marching to Zion

Text: Isaac Watts, 1674-1748

Tune: MARCHING TO ZION, 6 6 88 5 with refrain; Robert Lowry, 1826-1899

Come, we that love the Lord,

And let our joys be known,

Join in song with sweet accord,

Join in a song with sweet accord,

And thus surround the throne,

And thus surround the throne.

Let those refuse to sing

Who never knew our God;

But children of the heav'nly King,

But children of the heav'nly King,

May speak their joys abroad,

May speak their joys abroad.

The hill of Zion yields

A thousand sacred sweets

Before we reach the heav'nly fields

Before we reach the heav'nly fields

Or walk the golden streets,

Or walk the golden streets.

Then let our songs abound,

And ev'ry tear be dry;

We're marching through Immanuel's ground,

We're marching through Immanuel's ground.

To fairer worlds on high,

To fairer worlds on high.

Refrain:

We're marching to Zion, beautiful, beautiful
Zion;

We're marching upward to Zion, the beautiful
city of God.

I'm Blessed Just To Be Here

Text and Music: V. Michael McKay

I'm blessed just to be here

Just to be in the land of the living

I've got another chance to testify

Just how good God's been to me.

I may not be able to sing like the angels

I may not be able to preach like Paul

I've got another chance to testify

Just how good God's been to me.

I've got a song that the angels can't sing

It's a song of salvation full and free

I've got another chance to testify

Just how good God's been to me.

THE MURRILLS

A unique family of talented vocalists and instrumentalists, The Murrills are endowed with the ability to reach and rebuild broken spirits through the ministries of song and prayer. With an amazing chemistry that can only be shared between six close knit siblings, The Murrills have already wowed audiences through their work with the famed Tri-City Singers. Their debut CD, FAMILY PRAYER, was released June 2008 on Zomba Gospel. FAMILY PRAYER is produced by Grammy Award winner Donald Lawrence, who first worked with the group as part of his celebrated choir The Tri-City Singers.

Comprised of Darwin, Damion, Donnell, Andre, Roger and sister Arnetta – who was a featured Tri-City lead vocalist - The Murrills, guided by their mother, began singing together as children and FAMILY PRAYER is replete with songs that bring to life the old adage “the family that prays together, stays together.” Their music beautifully emphasizes the love and strength, ups and downs of family – with faith and togetherness being the central themes. “If only by the example we show of the unity and power of the family, I believe we can be a force for healing and reunification,” says Arnetta. “We want our lives and music-as a strong, close, loving family -to count for something meaningful.” Roger Murrill adds, “if the way we live, and the music we make, will help ease anyone’s pain, heal anyone’s brokenness, we will have accomplished something long lasting and important.”
