The Church's One Foundation #337

Text: Samuel J. Stone 1839-1900

Tune: AURELIA, 7 6 7 6 D; Samuel S. Wesley, 1810-1876

*Will be closed the month of September, Mon.—Fri.
However, we will be accepting donations.
We will be open regular business hours on Saturdays from 9:00a—2:00p*

The church's one foundation Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation By water and the Word.
From heaven He came and sought her To be His holy bride;
With His own blood He bought her, And for her life He died.

Elect from every nation, Yet one o'er all the earth;
Her charter of salvation, One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses, Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses, With every grace endued.

Mid toil and tribulation, And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation Of peace forevermore;
Till, with the vision glorious, Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great church victorious Shall be the church at rest.

Yet she on earth hath union With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion With those whose rest is won.
O happy ones and holy! Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly, On high may dwell with thee.

From the Pastor...

Zedekiah wanted the intercession of the man of God but not the instruction of the Word of God.

Word for the Month - "ASSEVERATE"

Scriptures for the Month - Jeremiah 36:1-31; I Kings 8:1-61, Acts 1:8

Thought for the Month:

There is NO Failure in God's Promise!

Emphasis for the Month: Revival

Pastor's Book of the Month:

Tuesdays with Morrie by Mitch Albom
(an old man, a young man, and life's greatest lesson)

Youth Book of the Month:

Into Each Life: The Finest In Christian Fiction
By Sheila E. Lipsey

"Additional Readings for the Week"

Mon.	Jeremiah 38:1-4	Gang of four.
Tues.	Jeremiah 38:5-6	Stuck in the mud.
Wed.	Jeremiah 38:7-13	The use of rags and ropes.
Thurs.	Jeremiah 38:14-28	Healthy alliances.
Fri.	I Kings 8:56	God never changes.
Sat.	Acts 1:8	Trust God's guidance.

Point to Ponder: We are never without hope - no matter how we may feel. We are never beyond the reach of God's grace and the touch of His love - no matter how distant these may seem. Even when we are struggling, God brings people into our lives, in Divine encounters of His grace.

Prayer: O God our heavenly Father, save us from a hard heart, an unkind spirit that is insensible to the woes of others. Lord, preserve Your people also from worldliness, from racism, from strife and envy, from everything that would dishonor the name of Christ that we bear. Lord, help our children to grow into the fullness of Your grace and love. We pray for friends who are ill, for many who are troubled because of the illness of others. We bring before You every case of trouble and trial known to us and ask for Your gracious intervention. Amen.

Dr. Ronald L. Carter

Dr. Ronald L. Carter, a native of High Point, N.C., became the 13th president of Johnson C. Smith University on July 1, 2008. With more than 30 years serving students and universities, Dr. Carter brings an impressive record of community leadership, academic administration, and budget management to the position.

Upon graduating magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology and philosophy from Morehouse College in 1971, Dr. Carter began his distinguished career at Boston University's Martin Luther King Jr. Center. By 1981, he rose to become the school's youngest dean of students. While at Boston University, Dr. Carter pursued graduate studies, earning both a Master of Theology degree and a Ph.D. in philosophy of religion. In the late 1980s, Dr. Carter's interaction with relatives of Nelson Mandela compelled him to put his abilities to work in South Africa.

Prior to Mandela's release from prison in 1990 and the abolition of apartheid, Dr. Carter was named senior administrator of the Health Services Development Unit at the University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Dr. Carter returned to the United States in 1997 as the provost and dean of faculty at Coker College in Hartsville, S.C. His almost 11-year tenure at Coker College included key roles in the private liberal arts college's strategic planning, academic and student development, financial management, and fundraising.

With research and teaching interests in the areas of medical ethics, ethical theory, and philosophic-religious issues, Dr. Carter has held faculty positions at both Coker College and Boston University. While at Boston University, he was director of the Martin Luther King Jr. Center for Career, Educational and Counseling Services and served as senior editor of Debate and Understanding, a scholarly journal for the study of minority Americans' economic, political, and social development.

His expertise in medical ethics and community involvement have brought him several national appointments, including moderator for the National Meeting of the Medical Institute for Sexual Health (2004-2006), chair of expert panel for the Connecting Parenting Adults and Youth Project funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (2006), and chair of expert review panel of scientific measurement for an abstinence rating tool funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (2007). He has appeared on numerous television and radio programs in South Africa and in the U.S., discussing educational issues and policies.

Since becoming president, Dr. Carter has become very involved in the Charlotte community. Currently, he is a board member with the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce, Chair of the Charlotte Streetcar Advisory Committee, Charlotte Center City Partners, Charlotte Museum of History, and Foundation for the Carolinas.

Among his many honors and awards, Dr. Carter was appointed a Sloan Scholar at Morehouse College, a Danforth Fellow at Boston University, and a Merrill Scholar, Robert College, Istanbul, Turkey. Dr. Carter was elected in 1967 to the Alpha Kappa Delta National Sociological Honor Society of Morehouse College.

He is the father of one daughter, Tumelo Rosalind Carter, and has served as a foster parent to four foster children.
